Who Can Get a Surf Lesson?

ANYONE can get a surf lesson! You're never too young, or too old. All you need is a positive attitude and the ability to swim by yourself and your halfway there. Just ask yourself these simple questions. If you answer yes to at least 4 out of the 5, then YOU are approved for an official Warm Winds Surf Lesson.

1. Can I swim?
2. Do I want to surf like Kelly Slater?
3. Do I want to be taught by a fun and friendly instructor?
4. Do I love the water and getting salty and tan?
5. Am I ready for the best day ever?

What's involved with the Surf Lesson?

Surf Lessons are taught by one of our highly trained and skilled surf instructors. At the tail ends of the season the water can be chilly, so bring along a wetsuit if you have one. Wetsuits are also available to rent for $10. The surfboard is included with the lesson. If you have your own board and would like to use that; no problem. The full lesson will last around an hour and 15 minutes. Depending on your skill level we will spend about 15 minutes going through several beach-start training exercises and talking about surf etiquette and safety considerations. After that, you'll jump in the water for at least an hour and get the best surf lesson available.

Where is the Surf Lesson?

Always plan on meeting at Warm Winds Surf Lesson Trailer at least 15 minutes before your lesson time is scheduled to meet the instructor and choose your board. The lesson trailer will be parked in the South Lot at the Town Beach where the seawall meets the fence by the first set of stairs. The Town Beach is a great place to surf; sandy bottom, and plenty of fun beginner-friendly waves rolling through all year.

When Can I Get a Lesson?

Surf Lessons are offered from May through September. You will need a wetsuit during the colder months. July and August will be the warmest times to get your shred on. Private lessons are offered at 8:30 am and 4:00 pm every day. Group lessons run at 11:00 am and 2:00 pm.

What does a Lesson Cost?

Surf lessons are taught in private, closed group and group formats. Group Lessons cost $50 per person. We try to keep the lesson groups smaller and more personal so that everyone gets a lot of time with the instructor. You can also sign up for a private or private party lesson for individualized instruction. Private lessons cost $65 per person. Stand-Up-Paddle lessons are also available for $75. Whichever way you go you can't lose with a Warm Winds Surf Lesson.

What to Do After the Lesson

One surf lesson will teach you all the basics, from standing up to surf etiquette and ways to keep yourself safe in the water. After one lesson you will know everything you need to know and have the confidence to get out there on your own. If you would like to continue with lessons and take your surfing to the next level you can set up multiple lessons to improve your skills. Other than that the best thing to do is get out in the water and practice as much as possible.

Surfboard Rentals

Surfboard rentals are $40 per day. After a lesson, it's always a good idea to come back, rent a board, and give it a shot on your own. Stand-Up Paddleboards are also available for $75 per day.

Commonly Asked Questions

- If it's raining can we still get a surf lesson? Yes, rain is no problem. You're going to get wet anyway. We will only cancel for lightning and thunder.
- What if this surf is flat? If we get to the beach and there are absolutely no waves, we can either give it a shot and have some fun, or re-schedule for another date.
- What about sharks? You're not going to see any sharks, but if you're attacked we will fully refund your lesson and give you a complimentary Warm Winds T-shirt.
- How many surf lessons do I need? After one lesson you will definitely have the knowledge, skills, and confidence to get out there on your own. Around half of the people that take a surf lesson with a Warm Winds instructor do come back for a second lesson. It is not uncommon to have someone schedule up to 4 lessons for more advanced instruction.
- What if we want a lesson for a large group? We always welcome lessons for large groups, birthday parties, and field trips etc! Call ahead to make specials arrangements.

*Large group discount rates may apply.
